

JULIET SEEKS ROMEO

I represent an attractive, fit, successful Vancouver woman in search of a gentleman with whom to share mutual interests.

This early 50's hazel-eyed brunette has just the right combination of good looks, healthy athleticism (she runs, hikes, snowshoes, and plays golf) and quirky sense of humour which all drive her romantic playfulness and optimistic outlook on life.

She loves all types of live music and theatre and you will often find her at the Vancouver Playhouse, or the Queen Elizabeth Theatre where her tastes range anywhere from Puccini or Madonna, to Shakespeare or Pamela Gien.

You can also find her exploring the tasting rooms of the Okanagan searching for a richly textured Shiraz, or a soft, fruity and smooth Pinot Noir (this may take a couple of days to accomplish) to bring home and around which design intimate and intricate dinners.

My client would like to meet an active, adventurous 50+ gentleman, who welcomes playfulness, humour and explorations.

Interested? Call or email quoting VS #0126 for a personal confidential interview in my Yaletown office.
