

Resolutions

A new year, and a new opportunity to make life-changing decisions.

At the outset of a new year, we are given a blank slate, a chance to reflect on what we need to do to lead full, happy lives. It may be as simple as shifting priorities. Whether your focus is on personal maintenance, meeting a fantastic partner, or committing to a healthier, more active lifestyle, all you need is the desire to make it happen—and a little help from the professionals.

“Are you interested in meeting Vancouver’s most eligible bachelor?” So ran an ad in the Georgia Straight placed by Jane Carstens of Hearts Canada on behalf of her very eligible client. Naturally, the response was completely overwhelming—so much so that the ad even drew the attention of local media, with CBC Radio conducting their own interview with Jane about her unique company and her latest client. Jane was doing what she was hired to do: conduct a private search on behalf of her client for a like-minded partner. Jane conducted personal, confidential interviews with a number of prospective candidates that responded to the ad before narrowing down a select few for her client to meet. A private search such as this conducted by Hearts Canada gives their high-profile clients total confidentiality and control of the situation. “Finding that special someone takes a great deal of time and energy. When you use the services of a matchmaker you dramatically increase the odds of meeting a sincere, compatible and committed person” says Jane.

For over 20 years Hearts has successfully matched thousands of mutually compatible singles in a safe, secure, and confidential manner. What sets Hearts Introduction Service apart is the integrity with which they deal with every client’s needs. Jane works on a one-on-one basis with every client and conducts all interviews in the privacy and comfort of the client’s home. “I want to meet my clients in a place where they are most relaxed and comfortable, so I get a true sense of who they are,” says Jane. Heart’s west coast membership includes singles from 30 to 86 years old, each with a unique reason for using Hearts, but all with a serious commitment to meeting a special person. And after all, hiring professionals to find us the perfect house or the perfect job is a worthy investment, isn’t the chance to meet the perfect partner equally deserving?

The Matchmaker

Jane Carstens, Professional Cupid

I have the best job in the world; I get to make great positive changes in people’s lives. Our service is unique in that I personally and confidentially interview each prospective client in the privacy of their own homes. In this way I get a feel for what the client’s lifestyle is and what he or she is looking for in a partner.

In using Hearts, clients feel confident they’re taking a proactive, organized, businesslike approach to finding a partner. – Jane Carstens
